S'HAI-NANKING ROAD SUFFERS FROM LACK OF MATERIAL

Passenger And Merchandise Traffic Grows

YEAR'S FIGURES

Peking Authorities Deaf To Railway's Needs

BY DAVID ARAKIE

Although urgent recommendations were made sometime ago to the Central Government by the Shanghai-Nanking Railway Administration and continue to be made for the provision of additional rolling stock no definite step so far appears to have been taken by it to remedy the present chronic congestion, and serious overcrowding of passengers.

Both passenger and merchandise traffic on this Line during 1922 increased by leaps and bounds. Last year the Railway carried no fewer than 10,449,949 passengers, or an average of just over 28,600 daily. This aggregate was an increase of 1,695,285 over the year 1921. As the seating capacity of the passenger coaches of all classes on the Line is 9,966 only, it will be seen that the average worked out per day shows that overcrowding cannot possibly be avoided.

The returns for the last period this year for which figures are available show a daily average of 32,700 passengers, a very large increase over the average of 1922, not altogether caused by the Chinese New Year. Early last year, it may be mentioned incidentally, the usual cheap week-end tickets which helped to develop the traffic in the past had perforce to be suspended, and restrictions placed on the granting of other concession rates.

FREIGHT TRAFFIC HEAVY

In addition to the passengers traffic the freight traffic passing over the Line is also heavy. Last year practically 1,500,000 tons of goods were transported over the Line, or an increase of 137,000 tons over the previous year. This increase would have been much greater had not goods traffic greatly fallen off as the result of the disastrous floods of 1921 with consequent loss of crops, and the Civil War in the Spring of last year, recovery from which only came in the latter months of the year.

In spite of this big improvement in the number of passengers and goods carried the Chinese Government is turning a deaf ear to the Railway's request to provide more and up-to-date rolling stock. This lack of additional rolling stock to meet the ordinary demands is rendering the task of the Railway Administration a difficult one and is impairing the reputation of the Line. It seems a very short-sighted policy to starve the Railway of the necessary equipment, and the management have a formidable task before them to carry the vast numbers of passengers who demand to be carried.

"MOBILITY" HABIT

To quote a well-known axiom "Trade follows the facilities provided for it," but apart from this there is a growing habit, which is not confined to the Chinese alone, of what we may term "mobility," and given a free hand in the development of the Railway there is no doubt that the result would be to the mutual advantage of the travelling public and traders, the Chinese Government, and the Railway Staff.

Stress must be laid on the vital importance of maintaining adequate rail communication with Shanghai, which is rapidly becoming the larger: center of world trade on the Western Pacific, and, in passing, the thought occurs that the generall improvement of the means of communication, always a governing factor in the progress and development of a nation, would greatly tend towards the reunification of the vast Republic.

It is inexplicable to us that there are no available funds for the purpose named, as with such large traffics, which have steadily developed even in the abnormal conditions which have obtained and show every sign of continuing to develop, there must surely be a surplus which could be utilised, for extensions and improvements and bring in a handsome return on the penditure.

It is striking evidence of the steady and continuous growth of

Mixed Court Orders Appearance Of Complainant In Case Against Viscount E. M. di Villa

The defense scored a point in the di Villa embezzlement case yesterday, when Assessor Tanaka and Magistrate Li ordered that Mr. S. Sugiura, assignee of the International Gold and Silver Currency Stock and Produce Exchange and complainant in the action, be subpoenaed to attend the next hearing and to bring with him certain books and documents requested by defendant's counsel.

The action is that in which Viscount di Villa, former managing director of the Far Eastern Bank and a vice-president of the Exchange, is charged with misappropriating $25,000 out of funds supposedly devoted to the registration of the Exchange at the Italian Consulate. The prosecution, conducted by Mr. Yano and Mr. Kikuchi, closed at the last hearing.

At the resumption of the hearing yesterday Mr. J. G. Priestwood, counsel for the defendant, stated that before going on with the defence he would ask the Court to order the appearance of Mr. Sugiura and that he be instructed to bring with him his books. The prosecution had brought in certain items taken from the books for their side of the case, but the defense wished all the books to be brought before the Court in this matter so that it might be proved to the Court just what money in cash was in the bank on the day stated.

PROSECUTION OBJECTS

Mr. Yano objected. He said he did not see why the defendant wished the appearance of Mr. Sugiura or why the latter should be called at all. The Mixed Court, he maintained, had no jurisdiction empowering it to order a foreigner to appear and bring his books. It was only the defendant who wanted the books, which were the evidence of the complainant for his own case. Counsel admitted receiving a letter from Mr. Priestwood making such an application, but he had to refuse it. The complainant was in hospital, Mr. Yano said, and the doctor would not allow him to leave; therefore it would be very hard to get him to court, or the documents referred to. The case was a very complicated one, counsel continued, but the important point was that all he had to prove was the embezzlement of $25,000, and counsel had all that evidence in his hands. Therefore he would ask that the case proceed.

Mr. Priestwood replied that he was sorry but he could not accept the explanation tendered by Mr. Yano as his reason for not bringing the complainant to court. If he would not come then counsel must ask that he be subpoenaed through the Japanese Consulate and ordered to bring with him the necessary documents.

"NO CASE MADE OUT"

Mr. Priestwood submitted that the prosecution had made out no case for the defendant to answer.

"There is not a scrap of evidence to show that Mr. di Villa had any knowledge that the document had been altered or that he had anything to do with the altering of it," counsel declared. "These facts were brought before the police and they made an investigation into the matter and reported on it."

A copy of the police report was handed into Court and counsel for prosecution and defense argued at some length on the evidence already submitted, after which the Court ruled on Mr. Priestwood's application.

"The case will be adjourned," said the Assessor, "until the complainant is able to appear and he will appear when the case is set down and will bring with him the documents as given in the list supplied by Mr. Priestwood."

Mr. Yano was given a list of the documents by Mr. Priestwood and said he would instruct his client to produce them when the case comes on for hearing again.

300 DROWNED IN SHIP WRECK OFF CHEKIANG COAST

Passengers, Panic Stricken, Rush To One Side Of Boat

Over 300 passengers were drowned when the s.s. Kin Ching of the Ning Chang Steamship Company was wrecked between Tinghai and Ningpo off Langtseshan in Chekiang during the week end, according to reports appearing in the Chinese press.

According to the forty survivors all the passengers became panic-stricken and ran to one side of the vessel when they ran into a storm. The ship turned turtle and a majority of the passengers were drowned.

CANADIAN PACIFIC TO OMIT MANILA AS PORT OF CALL

Beginning with the voyage of the Empress of Asia from Vancouver on April 19, all Canadian Pacific Steamers will omit Manila as a port of call, according to a cablegram received yesterday from Montreal by Mr. A. H. Tessier, general passenger agent for North China.

At present the Empress of Asia and Empress of Russia sail to Hongkong from Shanghai via Manila while the Empress of Canada and Australia go direct to Hongkong from Shanghai and do not call at Manila.

Mongol Princes Getting "Red"

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, March 5.—A Chinese report from Urga states that the Reds have instigated the Mongol Princes to organise executive committees similar to the Soviet system, with a Russian attached to each department. The report states that a delegation of Mongols are on their way to Peking to lodge a protest in this connection.

Another Bomb Outrage In Egypt

(Reuter's Service)

Cairo, March 5.—Considerable excitement was caused today by a bomb outrage, the third in three weeks. A bomb was thrown into the headquarters of the British Signal Corps but it did not explode. A second bomb was thrown into a cafe attached to the British Military Headquarters. It is stated that one Egyptian was killed and one was wounded while three British soldiers were wounded. The assailants escaped.

LIGHT OPERA STAR TO SING ON WIRELESS THIS EVENING

Mr. Jack Kinson, Bass, Delights Invisible Audience

FINE TECHNIQUE

Miss Russell Will Be Heard Tonight In New Songs

Tonight's Radio Program

Tonight's program broadcasted from THE CHINA PRESS-Radio Corporation of China station on the roof of the Dollar building at 3 Canton Road is as follows:

7:30 Chincse musical selections by the famous New World orchestra, accompanied by three of Shanghai's most famous sing-song girls.

8 p.m. News bulletins.

8:15 Miss Patti Russel, soprano with the Gilbert and Sullivan company, in songs.

News bulletins and phonograph selections.

Mr. Jack Kinson, one of the stars with the Gilbert and Sullivan light opera company now playing at the Lyceum Theater, combined forces with the famous Chinese orchestra from the New World last night to entertain the army of radio fans of Shanghai and vicinity with a first-class musical program.

The Chinese orchestra was secured especially for the benefit of a large gathering of prominent Chinese who were the guests of the American Trading Company at a radio party at the Foochow Road Chinese restaurant. They telephoned the broadcasting station operated by THE CHINA PRESS and the Radio Corporation of China on the roof of the Dollar building that they had heard everything perfectly and were delighted with the new stunt of furnishing music to dinner parties at a long distance.

Mr. Kinson entered light opera work after splendid training from some of the leading artists in England. In 1919 he first went to Australia, being engaged by Messrs. J. C. Williamson, Ltd., and during the time since then has figured in 18 roles in the Gilbert and Sullivan repertoire alone.

He is already well and favorably known in Shanghai for his part as 'Pish Tush' in "The Mikado." Mr. Kinson, who is a bass, sang three numbers last night, all with splendid 'radio technique.' His opening song was "Friend of Mine," followed by one of his laughable humorous numbers, "Wimmen, Oh, Wimmen," and concluded with "Invictus."

Mr. Kinson was accompanied by Mr. Earl Currens, of the Astor House Hotel orchestra, on the piano. Mr. Currens stepped into the breach at the last moment after the accompanist of the evening failed to appear and delighted both his invisible audience and Mr. Kinson by the splendid manner in which he assisted Mr. Kinson to make such an unqualified success of the program.

Miss Patti Russell, soprano with the Gilbert and Sullivan singers, was also scheduled to sing last night, but was unable to appear because of the missing accompanist. Miss Russell kindly consented to sing tonight.

In addition to the light opera stars THE CHINA PRESS, as usual, will broadcast a number of late news bulletins, and a Bed Time story for the kiddies. The Chinese orchestra from the New World and three of Shanghai's famous sing-song girls will also be on the program tonight, commencing at 7:30 o'clock.

A Distinguished Group Of "Miners"

HARDING PRAISES WARREN FOR HIS SERVICE IN JAPAN

Contributed To Upbuilding Of Cordiality, He Writes

Exclusive Dispatch To THE CHINA PRESS

Washington, March 4.—The State Department has made public a letter from President Harding to Secretary of State Hughes praising the service of former Ambassador Warren to Japan.

In his letter, which was addressed to Ambassador Hanihari, of Japan, the President said, interalia: "His (Mr. Warren's) service at Tokio has contributed immeasurably to the upbuilding of the cordial relationship that so happily exists between the two countries, and to the advancement of the interests so much desired by both."

To this Ambassador Hanihara replied that it gave him much pleasure to testify to the feelings of "warm friendship entertained by his sovereign and himself, toward Mr. Warren."

Persia And Turkey Sign Opium Pact

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, March 1.—Reuter's Agency is informed by the International Anti-Opium Association that both Persia and Turkey have recently signed the Hague Convention. Persia is a much larger exporter of opium than India, not only in quantity but in quality. The fact that the opium of these two countries contains 50 percent more morphia than the Indian makes the demand for it greater.

The Turkish delegates at Lausanne signed the Convention, and Persia has withdrawn the reservations which up to now have rendered her signing of the Convention useless.

The Association cannot account for this sudden change of attitude, unless it be due to the resolution passed by the Opium Council of the League of Nations in 1922, and referred back to the Advisory Committee for confirmation, in which it was suggested that countries signatory to the Convention should not purchase opium from or export opium or narcotics to countries not signatories.

Up to the present it is not known whether this resolution has become operative, but the fear of it may have stimulated the action of Turkey and Persia, for it obviously contained the elements of a boycott.

The yearly production of twelve hundred tons of high grade opium in these two countries makes it imperatively necessary that they should keep their markets until such time as international action will restrict production to medical needs and then there must be re-adjustment.

IRISH CIVIL WAR NOW REDUCED TO 'CRIMINAL ORGY'

No District Can Be Classed As "Rebel Stronghold"

Exclusive Dispatch To THE CHINA PRESS

London, March 4.—Dispatches from the Dublin correspondent of the Daily Express state that civil war in Ireland has ceased, and that in its stead there has grown up a widespread "orgy of lawlessness and of crimes without political significance."

The correspondent says the Free State government has the rebels "on the run," and that no single district can any longer be described as a "rebel stronghold."

SENATORS SAY STANDARD GRIPS CONTROL OF OIL

President Of Company Denies Committee Charges

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, March 5.—The Senate Committee, appointed to investigate the oil industry, has reported that the Standard Oil Companies completely dominate the oil industries and control prices from well to consumer, thus violating the dissolution decree.

The President of the Standard Oil Company has issued a statement declaring that the findings of the Committee are without foundation.

CONSERVATIVES LOSE

(Reuter's Service)

London, Mar. 4.—Mr. Harcourt Johnstone (Liberal) defeated Colonel G. F. Stanley (Conservative) by 14,824 votes to 9,648 in the by-election at East Willesden yesterday caused by the resignation of Sir Harry Mallaby-Deeley (Conservative).

Colonel Stanley is the Under-Secretary for Home Affairs and was rejected at Preston in the General Election.

CAMBRIDGE LETS DOWN OLDEN BARS AGAINST WOMEN

Degress For Laboratory And Other Work To Be Granted

Exclusive Dispatch To THE CHINA PRESS

London, March 4.—The Cambridge University Senate, at a meeting yesterday, passed without opposition a resolution granting degrees to women in laboratory work and arts on the same conditions as are applicable to men students.

Oxford university recently granted similar privileges to women.

REPORT CHAOS IS REIGNING IN TSINGTAO

Commercial And Financial Troubles Loom Because Of Mismanagement

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, March 5.—The Far Eastern Times publishes reliable correspondence from Tsingtau which reveals chaotic conditions there.

According to the paper the Chief of Police, Cheng Li, is proving quite incapable of performing his duties and is very ready to incorporate former bandits in the police. The leading Chinese merchants openly accuse him of corruption. The present Governor admits Cheng Li's incapacity but it stated to be unable to make him amenable to order.

The correspondent states that the railways, rolling stock and permanent way are going to rack and ruin through sheer carelessness and incompetency. All public utilities, the railway, posts and telegraphs, waterworks, electricity, wharves, sanitation and police, are mismanaged.

Before long things will be absolutely intolerable, the Times declares, and a serious commercial and financial deadlock must come.

U. S. Admiral Is Visiting Far Eastern Ports

Exclusive Dispatch To THE CHINA PRESS

Manila, March 5.—Admiral Anderson, commander of the American Asiatic fleet, sailed on board the U. S. S. Huron today for a courtesy visit to various Java and other Far Eastern ports. Six destroyers of the 43rd division accompanied the Huron.

The Admiral will be away approximately 24 days after which the fleet will depart for China waters for the summer.

RESISTANCE OF GERMANS WEAKENING, IS FRENCH VIEW

Paris Official Circles Are Optimistic

Cuno Says Berlin Is Willing To "Explore Terms"

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 4.—Berlin is astounded at the news of the French occupation of Mannheim and Karlsruhe Harbors, which are most important for the traffic of Upper Rhine, and of the Darmstadt railway workshops, the chief central for railway repairs for a big area.

Official circles of Paris are optimistic. They declare that the German resistance is rapidly weakening and will not last beyond the middle of May. There are indications, however, that both Paris and Berlin know that some early effort at a compromise must be made. The French press recently hoisted unmistakable signals.

The German Chancellor, Herr Cuno, who will speak at Munich tomorrow when he is expected to publish the terms Germany was prepared to offer last December, speaking at Berlin yesterday, declared that Germany was prepared to resist to the utmost but at the same time would explore all possible ways towards a solution.

Germany however would never agree to a solution not leaving the Rhineland as it was before.

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 4.—The Diplomatic Correspondent of the Observer states that French diplomacy has abandoned the attempt to create an anti-British continental bloc.

America has given France a straight hint that, if the French succeeded in creating such a menace to British security as to necessitate revision of the British disarmament policy and jeopardising British ability to carry out her debt obligations to America, this would be regarded as a challenge to the United States as well as Britain.

The Observer urges a solution of the Ruhr question by which German reparations would be finally fixed at £2,500,000,000, payment to be enforced by the united strength of Britain and France.

Britain would guarantee the frontiers of France by a pact of security and France would withdraw from the Ruhr. The Observer declares that, unless France in the next few months accepts such terms, the Entente cannot be continued.

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, March 4.—It is semi-officially affirmed that the scenes of pillage at the Bochum Chamber of Commerce on February 24 were staged by the German authorities after the departure of the French troops and foreign journalists were then invited to photograph them.

(Reuter's Service)

Duesseldorf, March 4.—The French today seized 1,000,000,000 marks at Duisburg intended for the Reichsbank.

The Station Masters of Buer and Westerholt have been arrested on account of acts of sabotage at those stations.

The Director of the Customs Office at Duisburg has been arrested in consequence of damage to the sluicegates of the Rhine Canal at Herne.

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, March 4.—President Ebert has decreed a penalty of ten years' penal servitude and in certain cases penal servitude for life for rendering espionage services, relative to economic, political or military matters, to a foreign Power which has occupied German territory in time of peace, or for accommodating, sheltering or aiding spies of such a Power. Fines up to 500,000,000 marks may also be inflicted.

(Reuter's Service)

Strasbourg, March 3.—With the object of facilitating the control of the Customs French troops at daybreak crossed the Rhine and occupied the workshops of Darmstadt and Mannheim Harbor. The French intend to occupy Karlsruhe Harbor.

(Reuter's Service)

Cologne, March 3.—It is reported that Darmstadt has been occupied by one colored and one white battalion.

(Reuter's Service)

Essen, March 3.—The latest fruits of the French occupation of the Ruhr stations are 83 locomotives, 650 loaded coal trucks and other rolling stock and two magnificent trains de luxe. To make room for the French, railwaymen at Spelldorff have been evicted from their houses.

(Reuter's Service)

Duesseldorf, March 3.—Twelve officers and 270 men of the Seutz Polizei have been expelled from Gelsenkirchen.

Meanwhile, the postal services in the Ruhr are becoming disorganised owing to German obstructive methods.

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, March 4.—The Government has informed the German Ambassodar that the occupation of Karlsurhe and Mannheim and the railway repair shops at Darmstadt is due to sabotage in the Herne Canal, where two barges were recently sunk with the object of blocking the canal.

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Mar. 4.—The Franco-German Mixed Tribunal, which was established by Article 304 of the Peace Treaty, has appointed neutral judges to replace the Germans who have received instructions from Berlin to withdraw.

Exclusive Dispatch To THE CHINA PRESS

London, March 4.—After it was announced in Berlin today that the Chancellor would go to the British occupied zone to make speeches against the French action in holding the Ruhr valley the British ambassador went to the Berlin foreign office to protest against such procedure.

As a result of his protest the proposed trip of the Chancellor was abandoned.

ROOT'S IDEA

(Reuter's Service)

New York, March 4.—Ex-senator Root, addressing the first meeting of the "Committee of One Hundred on Foreign Relations," the purpose of which is to instruct American voters in international affairs, declared that the United States have no more right to prevent France from going to the Ruhr than France would have to compel the United States to naturalise Japanese.

Peking Notes

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, March 5.—It is reported that the Government intends to form a post of Metropolitan Governor of Peking instead of that of Commander of the Peking Garrison and Gendarmerie. The office will be amalgamated with the Governor's and the Governorship will be offered to General Feng Yu-hsiang.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, March 5.—Senator Wang Fa-chin intends to introduce a motion on Wednesday impeaching Mr. Peng Yun-yi, the Minister of Education, for alleged mismanagement of educational affairs.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, March 5.—Admiral Sah Chen-ping has sent a telegram to the Government stating that public bodies have made him Civil Governor of Fukien and that he assumed the post on March 1. The Central Government has not appointed him to the post.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Mar. 4.—The Government has forwarded to Parliament a despatch asking the latter to furnish legal explanation as to whether the Sino-French Pact regarding the remittance of the French share of the Boxer Indemnity, reached in July, 1922, had any bearing on the National Treasury. If not, the Government contended that it could deal with the matter independently of Parliament by Article 17 of the Provisional Constitution.

It is anticipated that the despatch will rouse strong feelings among the Members of Parliament.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, March 2.—The Tui Kwangsi, General Lin Chun-ting, has wired to the Government saying that when General Chen Chiung-ming's forces had to withdraw to the border of the province near Chinchow he was obliged to despatch troops to maintain the Kwangsi boundary. Now that General Chen's troops have departed he has been able to withdraw his own men to Nanning. He says he is now awaiting further instructions from the Government with regard to them.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, March 2.—The report that a Sino-Russian Conference will open about the middle of this month is at least premature. Mr. Joffe stated when he left Peking that Le would probably be back by the beginning of March, so it is thought that his return cannot be longer delayed. How long it will be afterwards before a conference, either formal or informal, is arranged is quite uncertain.

The list of names of the Chinese delegates to such a conference is therefore a pure fabrication, for they have not yet been appointed.

"The Gondoliers"

They satisfy!

An old friend of mine—and his name is Carl Crow—has collared most of the best spaces in the Settlement, and has placarded them with posters about some cigarettes or other that satisfy.

I couldn't help thinking last night that Carl was very much like the present company that is occupying the Lyceum Theater.

They certainly satisfy. They fill up all the spaces that we ask for. The few hours that we spend nightly at the dear old house certainly give satisfaction to our tired nerves. Here they are again with another show, and they satisfy. In fact they are so satisfying that we become little piggies, and we want more and more.

Song follows song. Then we call "encore." Dialogue just hits with every line. When the folk on the stage insist on dancing we want to dance with them. Owing to our limited space we can't. Maskee! If we can't dance we can clap and yell. We did that last night. We made them dance again and again. We made them sing. All we had to do was to just cheer and laugh.

Truly, a very delightful company!

Workman worked like a workman. Not like the modern workman. He enjoyed all that he had to do. We enjoyed it more. The more we see of this Workman the more we like his work. He is just a little bit of a chap, but he is a great fellow. As the Duke of Palza-Toro he carried the house. I insist on seeing this good lad again, and hope to congratulate him upon the nice work supplied by his son in the little part of "Luiz."

Now a word for the ladies. Gianetta and Tessa! In the same order to the life, Miss Elcie Coram and Miss Byrl Walkely. We were introduced for the first time to Miss Elcie Coram. Her Gianetta was delightful. Miss Coram is a soprano and she is not only pleasing to look upon but she is also certainly charming to listen to. I can say just the same sort of thing to Miss Walkely.

Miss Christina Lorimer becomes a greater favorite every night. As the Duches of Plaza-Toro she was absolutely convicing. We all felt that the part was not big enough to give us all that we wanted.

The twins! But they were not twins. I mean those two chappies who were so thoroughly mixed up that they didn't know just who was who. We did. We knew who they were. We knew they were both good. Jack Ralston has already been introduced to you in these columns. His fine baritone voice, his presence and his nice conception of character cannot but make him a prime favorite.

His colleague Charles Mettam calls for a warm word of praise. He put any amount of good work into his part and his rendering of the play's star song, "Take a Pair of Sparkling Eyes," called naturally for a vigorous encore. Fine stuff, Mr. Mettam! Give us some more.

Victor Prince is endearing himself to the local playgoers. If he goes on at the present rate he will get applause even if he slacks off a good deal. I cannot imagine him anything but ripe. His "Fooh Bah" was a great study. Last night he equalled it with his "Don Alhambra."

Again a word of praise must be given to the settings. If I have a word of criticism about this part of an excellent production it must be hurled against the second scene. That moon never shone so brightly. Dim the old thing, or put the man in it. Last night it was very prominent and we had to look at it for a long time. The players did much to distract our attention, and they succeeded to a big extent, but that moon was so big and shone so brightly that we just had to feel sentimental. Perhaps Roy Smith wanted us to feel just like that.

People! Tonight the same show! I hope you have a ticket. If you haven't, get up as soon as you get this paper and see if you can collar a seat somewhere or other. The show is tip-top.

DOMINO.

"Carmen"

Although not especially Spanish or Gypsy in style, "Carmen" is an opera of considerable Latin dramatic power. There has always been a difference of opinion as to how the part of "Carmen" should be played. Some of the great singers have given a more or less rude, or coarse or sensual type of gypsy to the role, but there is good reason to suppose that a more modified interpretation might have been Bizet's own intention. Maria Serena, who sang the title roje last night, possesses many good qualities for the fulfillment of Bizet's intention, if it was such in this respect. Although there were indications that the part is not too familiar to her and there were times when it seemed that she should have paid more attention to the musical score, it was apparent to those who watched closely that she was giving a painstaking rendition, and she was delightful in the main.

As to the others in the soloist roles there should be mentioned Miss Ambrozo, who sang "Micaela," Giorgi as "Don Jose" and Manceri as "Zuniga." They were all excellent, and Scamuzzi scored heavily in the Toreador song, having to give a repetition. But why should he appear in a red costume? If the song and part were assigned to a picadore the outfit would fit in without question; but there is too much red in it to give the illusion of the generally dressed-to-the-ultimate toreador for even the least exacting sort of audience.

The chorus was excellent, especially in the second act, and the orchestra, under the adept baton of M. Crepagnino, although small, was no minor item in the success of the production.

A good house listened appreciatively to the opera and it is to be hoped that good houses will be on hand during the remainder of the Italian Opera Company's engagement. The bill for tonight is the "Barbier de Seviglia."

Sunday Tea Dances Draw Large Number

Large crowds attended the tea dansants at both the French Club and the Columbia Country Club on Sunday afternoon. The French Club as usual, was filled with a cosmopolitan crowd including a number of Americans, and the Country Club, almost exclusively American, indicated a revival of interest in tea dances there now that the new Prisco-Shanghai jazz players are providing the light fantastic urge.

Thousands Hear Melba On Radio

Tens of thousands of people all over England, Scotland, Wales and Ireland listened on Saturday night enraptured to Dame Nellie Melba and the climax of an entrancing week of ether-borne opera. Every syllable that she sings or says can be heard with an amazing distinctness, says the London Daily Mail of January 22.

She possesses the real "wireless voice," and so has as great a charm for her unseen audience scattered in little villages and great industrial towns as for those who hear her from the stalls of Covent Garden, where she sang in the last two acts of "La Boheme."

Seated before the fire people far away from the opera house—as far as the Shetland Isles, Paris, Copenhagen, and even Madrid—heard on Saturday night every note the great prima donna sang, the crash of applause from the enthralled house, the shrill "Cooees" of excited Australians, and the speeches which ended a wonderful evening, so distinctly that they were carried in spirit to the opera house and almost seemed to see the scenes being enacted there.

Woman Shot In Strange Case

A Chinese woman, Dai Tsai-sz, was taken to the Shantung Road Hospital on Sunday suffering from a bullet wound in the abdomen as a result of a peculiar incident at 654 Shanhaikwan Road.

Four armed men entered her home and asked for her husband, a cook at weddings and funerals. The woman told them he was not at home and the men pushed her into another room, threw her to the floor, and one shot at her, the bullet entering the abdomen. The husband told police he has no idea what the men were looking for.

RUSSIAN JAILED

George Koosmine, unemployed Russian who came to Shanghai with Admiral Stark's fleet and had previously made his appearance in the Mixed Court, was up again before Assessor Mead and Magistrate Li yesterday and was sentenced to one week's imprisonment for being drunk and disorderly on Miller Road Saturday evening. Koosmine said he had employment but the police declared that he had not and that he was making a nuisance of himself in the Settlement. The Assessor in sentencing the accused told him that he would be turned over to the Chinese authorities at the expiration of his term.

transport that the facilities for transport on this Line have not for the last five years or so overtaken the traffic. The Shanghai-Nanking Railway brings into communication several important and populous towns and cities of Kiangsu Province and forms one of the first links in the railway chain connecting the old with the new world by way of the great Trans Siberian route.

With regard to the main line from Shanghai to Nanking it was just 23 years ago that the preliminary agreement for the acquisition of a loan for the construction of the railway was signed in Shanghai by His Excellency Sheng Kung-pao, then Sheng Hsun-huai, the Director-General of the Imperial Chinese Railway Administration, and Messrs. Jardine Matheson and Co., and the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank as joint agents representing the British and Chinese Corporation. This provided for an issue of a sterling loan for three-and-a-quarter million pounds secured by Imperial Chinese Bonds with the railway as first mortgage, and interest calculated at five percent. In addition to this the British-Chinese Corporation advanced a million taels for the Woosung line. The bondholders, besides the interest, are entitled to one-fifth of the surplus profits, the Central Government the other four-fifths.

HIGH TRAFFIC DENSITY

We understand that no fewer than 56 regular passenger trains are scheduled to run daily, in addition to a full service of goods trains. On a single line Railway, where the distances between crossing stations are irregular, the arrangement of such a train service consisting of express, fast and local passenger trains, as well as goods trains, all running at different speeds and each of relative importance, presents no little difficulty.

With such a high traffic density as obtains on the Shanghai-Nanking Line it is almost impossible to avoid occasional delays, preference having, of course, to be given to the express and fast passenger trains. If only one train, for whatever reason, is delayed, it may so react on other trains that the whole service easily becomes disorganised. That the delays are not more frequent is due to the intelligence and ability of the Chinese staff, each member of whom has to pass a mort rigorous examination before appointment, and is subject to constant supervision.

In no sphere of industry are employer and employee more interdependent for mutual success than in the railway world, and a great deal has been achieved by the management by the exhibition and encouragement of a sympathetic feeling for the welfare of the staff, with the result that the employees are more and more realising that the success and progress of the undertaking is an important and vital factor in their own prosperity.

SOUND MANAGEMENT

The Administration believes in the policy of "a good day's pay for a good day's work," and that to achieve success it must have faith in its employees, who are invited to communicate freely with their superiors for the adjustment of any grievance or fancied grievance, and are cordially invited to submit suggestions for improvement in all phases of Railway working, and constructive criticism. In short, they wish each employe who is working for the good of the Railway to know that he has the management behind him with encouragement and confidence.

But the only real cure for the difficulties which are becoming more and more accentuated, is the provision of additional rolling stock and other facilities respecting which the management of the Railway have for some time been making urgent representations. In the meantime the most up-to-date "train control" system, which has been of inestimable service on railways in other parts of the world, has been installed and is proving of great advantage in facilitating the working of the train service.

It may be mentioned as well that the Shanghai-Nanking Railway pass over their line a greater number of trains and have a faster schedule than any other single line railway.

Stamp Collectors Meet Wednesday

Mr. J. Em. Lemiere will give an illustrated lecture on the stamps of France, on Wednesday at 5.30 p.m. at the Hall of the Royal Asiatic Society, 5 Museum Road. At the previous meeting, a visitor, Mr. Papadopulo, exhibited a very fine display of the stamps of Asiatic Russia, and a paper was read giving in detail the history of the stamps issued by the various Bolshevik and anti-Bolshevik governments.

It has been decided by the members that the public be allowed to participate in the fortnightly stamp auctions which take place at 6.15 p.m. Mr. Wm. C. Divers, the Secretary, will dispose of fifty lots on Wenesday—these include several Chinese rarities besides a few sets and it will provide an opportunity for the young collector to fill gaps in the album.

New Ballet For The Del Monte

Manager Al Israel of the Del Monte is leaving for the North today on a miscion devoted to the interests of Del Monte patrons. Al is going North to sign up a new and sensational Russian ballet—with a prima donna, or premiere danseuse, or number one entertainer, or some such delectable personage-in-charge—for the edification of the amusement-seeking.

The new ballet, Al says, will include about a dozen of the most dazzling entertainers obtainable since the Soviet went into operation. The lady who is expected to lead the galaxy to the threshold of local acclaim is one Mlle. Andree de Greuz, singer, dancer and entertainer par excellence—according to advance notices. She has been appearing in Northern cities, and seems to have been 'knocking 'em dead.'

Mr. Israel expects to return to Shanghai in about three weeks.

The Del Monte is offering an exceptional bill this week. Vera Keltzow is putting on a couple of new dances which are absolutely A-1. One of these particularly, "The Dance of Thais," in execution, costuming and setting is worthy of preference place on any metropolitan bill. Another dance, seemingly an interpretation of the dubiety and final exuberance of the allied nations in the late war, is also a really "gazinkus" number.

Asks $800,000 For Domestic Loans Fund

Peking, March 4.—Sir Francis Aglen, Inspector-General of the Maritime Customs, has addressed a communication to the Ministry of Finance, asking it to allocate the Salt Surplus funds for March to the amount of $800,000 towards the consolidation of the sinking fund for domestic loans.

Sir Francis calls attention to the fact that since October 1921, the Ministry of Communications has ceased paying its quota for domestic loan service. As regards the Salt Surplus which was partly designed as security for internal loans, he points out that since December 1921, the amount unpaid has totalled over $13,200,000 up to date. Although he has endeavored to make up the deficit by allocating the Custom Surplus available, he has succeeded merely in paying off the interest due on such loans, while the capital sums of matured loans remain unpaid.

The Finance Ministry is reminded that the sum of over six million dollars, being the capital and accrued interest of the Currency Loan, is due for payment at the end of this month and that the payment of interest due on the 1st Year Public Loan this month will require a further amount of $560,000. But the sinking fund under Sir Francis' control is inadequate to meet such payments.

Rumors are current to the effect that disgusted by the deliberate negligence of the authorities concerned with regard to the allocation of funds for domestic loan service, Sir Francis contemplates giving up the control of the sinking fund for internal loans.

Salt Tax Rise Is Condemned By All Indian Press

(Reuter's Service)

Delhi, Mar. 3.—Practically the whole of the Indian press condemns the proposal to increase the salt tax as it would be a tax on the poor.

British and Indian journals are all anticipating that the Assembly will reject the finance bill on that score and also on political grounds.

Big English Estate To Change Hands

Manchester, March 4.—Another of England's great estates is about to change hands. Shanghai Zionists Honor Count Uchida

An interesting function took place Sunday afternoon at Synagogue House on Seymour Road when Mr. T. Funatsu, Consul-General for Japan, received, on behalf of Count Uchida, the Diploma of the Golden Book in which the name of the Count had been inscribed. The function took the form of an "at home" by the Shanghai Zionist Association.

Rabbi W. Hirsch, in making the presentation, recalled the fact that the Count had used his influence at the San Remo Conference in having the Mandate for Palestine ratified. Japan, he added, is the only nation that had not persecuted the Jew.

The speaker explained the different symbols in the Diploma of the Golden Book. It was the Japanese Ambassador who was instrumental in introducing the resolution which culminated in the ratification of the Palestine Manadate, he said. The Jewish community were grateful to Japan for this, and in recognition of the interest taken by Count Uchida, the Zionist Organization had caused his name to be inscribed in the Golden Book.

On behalf of the Shanghai Zionist Association Mr. N. E. B. Ezra, the honorary secretary, welcomed Mr. and Mrs. Funatsu. Count Uchida, he said, took a keen interest in Zionism, his first sympathy with the cause being declared in a special cable that he despatched to the local Association congratulating the Zionists on the ratification of the Palestine Mandate. Jews appreciated the kindly hand of Japan, whose influence was thrown on the side of the national aspirations of their people. During the short period that has elapsed since the Mandate was ratified colonies and cities had been established, tens of thousands of acres of land brought under cultivation, factories and electric plants erected, roads and bridges built, swamps drained, forests planted, and modern sanitation introduced.

Mr. Funatsu, in accepting the Diploma for Count Uchida, thanked the gathering for their hospitality, and assured them that the Count considered it a great privilege to have his name inscribed in the Golden Book.

Prof. Shastri also spoke.

REMINGTON TYPEWRITER PROGRESS

Forty-eighth Year of the Organization's Business Life is Made Memorable by Announcement of the Improved Self Starting Remington for Office Use, and the New Remington Portable.

Within the last few months the Remington Typewriter Company has made two noteworthy contributions to typewriter progress.

First, is the improved Self Starting Remington, the sum of 48 years of experience in the manufacture of writing machines. Second, is the wonderful Remington Portable which fits in a case only 4 inches high and is especially designed for the traveling man, field engineer, author, minister, school boy and girl and in fact anyone who has casual writing to do.

The checks against every kind of mis-operation are so complete that the machine seems bound to turn out good work no matter how operated. The improved Self Starting Remington is a machine for the expert but not the expert alone. It is certain to have exceptional popularity with the student, beginner and the novice, because it helps them to turn out good, acceptable work from the very outset.

The fact that the Remington Portable Typewriter has the standard keyboard has already insured its exceptional popularity. It has the same number of printing keys, same size, same arrangement, as any standard machine. This means that from the operator's standpoint it is exactly like the standard machine. The user of a standard machine has nothing new to learn and the user of a Remington Portable has nothing to unlearn.

Remington Portable
A marvel of compactness. Fits in a case four inches high. Has Standard Keyboard, and many other standard features.
THIS is the portable machine you have been waiting for—with Standard Keyboard—no shifting for figures. Small and handy, but strong, sturdy and dependable, like every Remington.
Carry it with you wherever you go and use it for all your writing. Win the appreciation of your personal and business friends by sending them clean, beautifully typed letters—it pays! This intimate little companion will save your time, save your dollars, and lighten the burden of all your writing tasks.

STREET SCUFFLE LEADS TO CHARGE OF MORPHIA SALE

A scuffle on Burkill Road Sunday morning, when loafers started plotting a ricsha passenger, resulted in the arrest of two Chinese men and a woman and the seizure by the police of a large quantity of what is believed to be morphia. The police believe that the arrests have put a decided check on morphia distribution in Shanghai and will press charges of attempted bribery of police officers against the woman in the case.

At the Mixed Court yesterday Detective Sergeant Knight stated that a police interpreter from Hongkew police station had been riding along Burkill Road Sunday morning in a ricsha when he saw some loafers following another ricsha set upon its occupant and start taking things out of the vehicle. With the assistance of a friend and police who were summoned one of the loafers, the second accused, and the occupant of the ricsha were taken into custody. The former was charged with theft of twelve tins of morphia and the latter with possession of 20 tins. Acting on information obtained from the first accused, a raid was made at 711 Chungking Road and a large box nearly full of what was believed to be morphia was seized. The third accused, the woman, was present at the address in question and offered the witness $1,100 not to take the box away. She later offered him $400 to allow her to escape.

Mr. Rodger appeared for the Chinese accused of stealing the morphia and asked that bail be allowed. This the Court, Assessor Blackburn and Magistrate Kwan, refused and the case was remanded one week to permit further investigation.

Gen. Shen Pledges Aid To Sun Yet-sen

Peking, March 4.—A report from Canton states that General Shen Hung-ying, Commander-in-chief of the Kwangsi troops, who executed the coup d'etat against the Kuomintang Administration in Canton in January, now has pledged his allegiance to Dr. Sun Yat-sen.

General Shen, the report adds, has accepted the post of Commander-in-chief of Border Defense of Kwangsi given by Dr. Sun. It is understood that Dr. Sun has agreed to assist General Shen to march his army back to Kwangsi in the course of one month.

Peking Has Scheme To Placate Dr. Sun

Peking, March 4.—A report emanating from official circles states that the Government contemplates appointing Dr. Sun Yat-sen Director General of the National Railway Administration, in connection with its "re-unification" scheme.

It is understood that this particular idea was suggested by Dr. C. T. Wang who obviously recalled that during the Yuan Shih-kai monarchical regime, the same trap was laid for Doctor Sun.

The report adds that Mr. Li Kenyuan, Minister of Agriculture and Commerce, has advised President Li Yuan-hung and Premier Chang Shou-tseng to defer action to this end, pointing out that such a step will merely call forth some grim sort of sarcasm from the serious-minded.

An inquest was begun yesterday by Assessor Mead and Magistrate Li in connection with the death of a Chinese who was struck by a motor car at Sinza and Markham Roads on February 19. The man died at Shantung Road Hospital Sunday. The inquest was adjourned following evidence of identification.

Two boys employed at the Jewish Club appeared in the Mixed Court yesterday charged with the theft of a gold watch and money aggregating $41 in value as a result of investigation by Detective Sergeant Tinkler, who found a number of finger-prints on a pane of glass. A glass door top had been broken and a Yale lock turned and the police, from indications, made interior investigations. As a result D. S. Tinkler discovered that the No. 2 boy at the Club was involved. Taxed with the theft the No. 2 incriminated the No. 3 and a search of the latter's lodgings disclosed the watch, hidden under the servant's pillow, and some $8 in small money, the remainder of the money taken. Each of the boys was sentenced to three months' imprisonment.

British Expert Predicts Better Trade In 1923

London, March 4.—An encouraging forecast for improved British trade in 1923 is made by Felix J. Blakemore, president of the National Chamber of Trade.

"I am convinced that industrial conditions will improve," Mr. Blakemore states, "and while paying due regard to the importance of pre-war European markets and their present stagnant condition, the prospects of a greatly increased trade with the oversea dominions, crown colonies and dependencies are distinctly reassuring.

"It will be remembered that early this year oversea dominions floated large loans in London for purposes of development. These were mostly over-subscribed, and now that the schemes are maturing, large orders for plant and machinery are being placed in Great Britain which will gradually expand as the work proceeds.

MARKETS ACTIVE

"The foreign markets of the world—other than the United States—are increasingly active in their inquiries for British goods, due in the main to the failure of Germany to execute orders, and also somewhat to the Fordney Tariff Bill raising the United States tariff wall. If only we can reduce our costs of production, and therefore our prices, we shall be able rapidly to convert those inquires into orders."

Mr. Blakemore predicts that cost of production will be reduced by a fall of 5 points in the living price about March, and a further considerable reduction 12 months hence. This is based on the appreciation of the value of the pound sterling in America, "which will enable American produce to be reduced in price to the consumer, and America is so important a factor in the supply of food goods to this country, that American prices of food rapidly become world prices.

"The increased food supplies, together with appreciation of sterling values, will undoubtedly bring cheaper goods to the consumer, and if, by reducing the cost of living, it does not immediately reduce production cost of manufactured goods, it will at once increase the purchasing power of the British public and so stimulate the home demand for the goods we make."

Filibuster Marks Close Of Congress

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, March 4.—The closing hours of the expiring Congress were marked by a filibuster which carried it over until today.

The trouble started in the House of Representatives where seven members refused to permit any legislation in the Bill appropriating $10,000,000 for the purchase of nitrates for fertilisers and calcium arsenate for eradication of boll weevil.

Seven Senators followed suit and the filibuster continued till mid night when an arrangement was reached permitting the adoption of the Farm Credits Bill after which the filibuster was resumed.

The Senate, before the filibuster, confirmed the appointment of Mr. Woods as Ambassador to Japan. Many minor appointments, however, were not ratified.

JOHNSON PLAYING TONIGHT

Meets Remedios In Semi-Final Of Title Tournament

NICHOL IS HURT

Junior Final Postponed; Big Match Is Set For Tomorrow

Messrs. R. C. K. Johnson, Shanghai champion, and G. M. P. Remedios will play their semi-final in the local billiard tournament tonight at the Town Hall. The men were scheduled to clash yesterday afternoon and last night, but Mr. G. D. Nichol, who is billed for the junior championship final against Mr. T. A. Alvares, was hurt Sunday afternoon playing football and is unable to handle a cue. An X-ray taken yesterday will determine whether or not Nichol sustained a broken collar bone.

Thus the final for the junior crown is postponed indefinitely and the public will be treated to two senior league matches today and tomorrow. The injury to Nichol will probably mean that Johnson is to play two long games in as many days. Johnson should defeat Remedios this afternoon and this evening. The champion is in rare form and should defeat the Asia Bank man by a couple of hundred points.

But tomorrow night there will be a real battle as Mr. C. W. Porter earned the right to meet Johnson again by beating Mr. R. F. Phillips at the Marine Engineers Institute Sunday night in a game which was in doubt until the last hundred, although Porter got away to a better start.

There were no sensational runs, Phillips' 48 being the highest break. Porter got a 45. The winner's margin of victory was but 77 points, the final score being 800 to 723.

Porter and Johnson met in the final a year ago when the latter egged his title without too much effort. Porter is better this year and so is Johnson, but the latter tomorrow night should be much better than the one which decided the 1922 championship.

The preliminary rounds this season have brought out some great billiards, Phillips notably playing a particularly fine game.

The semi-final tonight and the final tomorrow will be in aid of local charities and tickets are on sale at the various clubs in Shanghai. Numbered reserved seats are going at five dollars while other seats are on sale at two dollars and one dollar.

The matches will be in two sessions, starting at 6 and 9 o'clock. They will be played on a specially constructed tournament table.

CALCRAFT WINS REVOLVER CLUB EXPERTS' MEDAL

Mr. L. A. Calcraft (Butterfield and Swire) won the experts' medal at the Shanghai Miniature Rifle and Revolver Club for January and February and will compete in the coveted class in future competition.

Conditions of the competition were five shots at 16 yards left hand, five shots at 20 yards, either hand, 10 shots at 25 yards, either hand. Time limit for loading and firing 20 shots—five minutes. Targets with two-inch inner and four-inch outer bulls-eye used. During March the allcomers' championship competition and the Club's team shoot will be held. It is hoped that all persons interested in revolver shooting will enter the allcomers' competition which calls for 50 shots to be fired at 20 yards, standard American targets.

MARKSMAN'S CLASS

	Score	Time
L. A. Calcraft	162	4.00*
Mrs. H. P. Wilkinson	155	4.00
H. Bland	151	4.00
A. F. Wheen	144	4.00
G. L. H. Henderson	135	4.00
E. N. Harry	195	3.40
H. P. S.	200

*Expert's medal.

Preliminary Competition:—10 shots at 15 yards, 10 shots at 20 yards, either hand. No time limit. 150 pts. for marksman.

L. A. Calcraft 180; A. W. Patzlaff 178; H. Bland 165; G. E. Goolden 165; F. G. Renwick 154; Miss N. Sweet 151; (All of whom qualified for Marksmans' Class in future competitions.)

Hongkew Golf Club Is Active; Championship Tourney Entries To Close Thursday

The second competition for the "President's" Cup by members of the Hongkew Golf Club was held on Sunday. A. E. Collins registered first win with 85 (45 x 44-4). His future handicap will be one stroke. The third competition will take place next Sunday at 8.30 a.m.

The February Monthly Cup competition was held concurrently with the President Cup competition, and was won also by A. E. Collins with 85. The March competition will take place on Sunday, March 25 at 8:30 a.m.

Following is the conditions of The Encouragement Shield (Presented by Well-Wisher).

1.—Shield:—The shield to be competed for weekly (one round) on Sundays and any holidays available.

2.—Round:—For every competition, competitors may play more than one round, and the scores will be taken from the best round.

3.—Points:—Points, for each competition, will be awarded as follows: For every "Bogey" made, one point will be credited the player and one point added for every stroke below "Bogey."

The first player making an aggregate score of 100 points will be the winner of the Shield.

4.—Ties:—In the event of a tie in the aggregate points in the final competition competitors will play two rounds, if still a tie five extra holes.

The 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th competitions were held in February and last Sunday. C. M. Sequeira is leading with 15 points.

CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP

Members are reminded that the first round of the Club Championship will take place on Sunday at 8:30 a.m. Entries close on Thursday at 5. p.m.

The drawing for the first round will take place at Mr. A. M. Collaco's residence on Thursday at 9 p.m.

The following have already sent in their names: A. A. Britto, A. M. Collaco, H. C. Collaco, T. Collaco, A. M. Correa, A. E. Collins, A. Encarnacao, J. M. B. Gutierrez, J. M. Lopes, S. Luz, V. Remedios, B. Pintos; C. M. Sequeira and R. Robarts.

The Committee hopes that more members will enter for this important event.

LADIES' HUNT IS MARKED BY DRIVING FINISH

In a driving finish, Miss K. Craddock, on Gray Goods, won the ladies paper hunt Sunday afternoon, just nosing out Mrs. Andrews, who rode a griffin in the race.

Mrs. N. W. Hickling was third on The Prelate, Miss Coutts made fourth place on Alntree, Mrs. Horace Gulick got home fifth on The Buffalo and Mrs. Fitzgerald made the card on The Wild Man from Borneo. There were but nine starters but the dash for the flags was one of the greatest in ladies' hunts for years.

The start was at Beith's Bungalow and the ladies went over a hard course to finish at Forth.

INTERPORTERS WILL BE DINED ON SATURDAY

The Shanghai football team which played in Hongkong and won the interport game is to be entertained at dinner at the Union Club Saturday night.

Reservations for the affair are being made by the honorary secretary of the Shanghai Football Assocation, Mr. C. W. Hampson, or these may be made with the honorary secretary of any of the football clubs. Applications for reservations must be accompanied by the sum of $5 for each person.

THIS BABY'S CONDITION

Seemed Almost Hopeless Until Baby's Own Tablets Were Tried. Then His Maladies Disappeared

Here is a message of praise and thanks from India. Its writer, Mr. B. Sharma, head clerk at the Cavalry School, Saugor, Central Provinces, states:—

"My baby son, aged 9 months, has been subject to various maladies usual among infants during their teething period. Diarrhoea with slow fever was the leading trouble. The child purged as often as 30 times in 24 hours and vomited undigested milk.

"When I commened giving him Baby's Own Tablets his condition appeared to be almost hopeless but the contents of one vial had a marvellously soothing effect. His maladies then gradually disappeared, and by the time three vials were finished the child had regained his full strength."

No home where there are young children should be without Baby's Own Tablets. They are an ever-ready remedy for infantile indigestion, constipation, colic, diarrhoea, teething pains, croup, colds and worms. Druggists sell them, or post free, 60 cents the vial, from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 60 Kiangse Road, Shanghai.

Miss Vera Barger To Select Team To Sport China Colors

Chinese girls will compete in the Far Eastern Olympiad at Osaka in May.

The China Committee of the Far Eastern Athletic Association has okayed the plan to send girl athletes to the championships and this country will be represented in tennis and swimming and probably in volleyball.

Miss Vera Barger of the Young Women's Christian Association is to be in charge of the girls team and has joined the executive committee of the China Athletic Association. She will aid in the selection of the young ladies to represent China and will probably accompany the team to Japan.

Following the receipt of the invitation from the Japanese athletic authorities, Dr. John H. Gray, who is in charge of the China team, found that there was a strong sentiment in favor of China representation in girl athletics and then the co-operation of the Y.W.C.A. was sought. This will be the first time in history that Chinese girl athletes planned to compete abroad.

SHENSI FAMINE LOOMS UNLESS CROPS IMPROVE

Robbers Executed By Amateurs In Art Of Killing Provide Spectacle

(China Press Correspondence)

Hianfu, Shensi, by mail.—Wheat running as high as $16 per picul in the local market has begun to have a serious effect on the large proportion of the population living near the margin of distress. There has been a slight fall of snow twice during the last month, but unless it snows more and rains next month so that there is still some hope of a wheat crop this year it seems inevitable that the price of all foodstuffs will soar and famine conditions spread. The part of the province where suffering has already begun most seriously is in the counties between the Wei river and the northern mountains. There has been practically no rain there since June. Of course the serious thing about a food shortage or a threatened one, which has the same effect on prices, in an inland province like this which has very few navigable waterways is the impossibility of relieving the situation by cheap transportation. There is an effort now being made to buy grain in Kansu sufficient to break the market here, but the cart charges will make the price fully equal to the local rate, unless definite discount arrangement is made from famine funds.

The part of the province south of the Txin mountains depends largely on rice and maize, of which latter the crop was especially big last year. So that the lack of rainfall is not so serious a matter there at this time of year, though there has begun to be an agitation for famine funds among the Chinese gentry of the Hanchung district.

SHANGHAI VISITOR

Mr. Arthur L. T. Clement arrived in Sian a few days ago on a business trip from Shanghai, and leaves by automobile today for the east. Rev. A. G. Shorrock, Dr. B. C. Broomhall of the Baptist Mission Society, stationed in this city; Rev. Wm. Mudd and Miss Curtis of the same society, stationed in San Yuan; are all attending a Conference in Tsinan, Shantung.

The annual meeting of the Y.M.C.A. proved a successful occasion this year, being the first in the new temporary buildings. The president elected for this year is the new Postal Commissioner, S. F. Liu, Esq.

The usual pressure for ready cash for closing the moon calendar year has been evident in business circles for the last week. A gang of men over-anxious for silver were arrested for despoiling a big silver shop Friday night last. Passers-by were attracted by the sight of crowds packed into the bread East Main St. near the Post Office Sunday morning and on inquiry learned that seven of the would-be thieves were being publicly executed. It seemed like a relic of barbarism. Soldiers, inexperienced in the art, sawed away with the executioners' swords, to sever the heads. Besides the spectators packed in the 100 ft. wide street, others had gained standing space along the roofs of the shops for some distance. Judging from the remarks of those leaving the scene, many in the crowd considered themselves connoisseurs in the matter and agreed that the killing was not very well done. The bodies were left in the streets for a considerable time and produced their full effect as a spectacle.

Sungkiang Jogs Along In The Same Old Way

(China Press Correspondence)

Sungkiang, Ku., Feb. 26.—Another China New Year has passed about as usual. There seems to be no idea in the people's minds of giving up the old calendar for the new. So long has it been the custom of settling up debts at this time that it will be a very great while before they are able to adopt another method. Then too ideas of rest, recreation and enjoyment have become so associated in the Chinese mind with this season that it is very attractive to them and so far nothing has come in to take its place. The great trouble is that gambling and pleasure are about synonymous in the general public's mind and throughout the country, they run pretty wild along this line.

A movement was started Saturday afternoon, which it is hoped is going to be far reaching in its effects. A number of our citizens, men and women, met in one of the missionary homes and organised a Mutual Benefit Club. It is to meet once a month and its primary object will be the uplift and welfare of the family life. However, it is hoped that the good effects of the organisation will reach out along many lines and promote the general welfare of Sungkiang.

Women's Styles Lead To Disease, Says Physician

"I have more women patients than men in the Chest Hospital, where I work, because women make themselves susceptible to colds wearing unhygenic clothing at the dictation of fashion."

This statement was made by Dr. Alexander, a specialist in pulmonary diseases, in a lecture at the Institute of Hygiene.

"The low-necked dress may be suitable in the Summer," continued Dr. Alexander "but in the Autumn and early Winter it is dangerous. A woman may often be seen facing the sun, tempted by the sunshine and feeling warm in its glow. Meanwhile the northwest wind is stabbing her in the back.

"No one would expose the kidneys. The lung is more vulnerable and more dangerous, yet fashion decrees that it must be exposed by the low-necked dress."

Hawaiian Village In Parisien Ballroom

A record attendance on Saturday night and big crowds Sunday and last night proved the popularity of the new Hawaiian Village decorative idea for the ball room of the Hotel Parisien. The Lokila trio and John Zane, Roy Sharp, and Dick Adamson's jazz orchestra are contributing entertainment numbers to chime in with the setting and the idea of the new manager, Mr. Charles Hannigs, is a popular one. Mr. Bob Akeo and Mr. Abbott of the staff, who executed the decorative scheme, have come in for all sorts of praise from guests.

Features of the Saturday night program were the lucky spot dances, the management distributing valuable prizes to the fortunate dancers.

Soy Italians Import Arms

(Eastern News Agency)

Peking, March 4.—According to information, emanating from Chinese Government circles, Italians have recently smuggled arms into China. Some were reported stored in Tientsin and the remainder in Italian barracks in the district of Shanhaikwan. Upon receipt of this report, the Chinese Government is reported to have given orders to the local Chinese authorities and troops to keep a sharp lookout so that the arms may not be transported elsewhere and to be negotiating with the Italian Minister to Peking through the Waichiaopo.

ROSARIO RETAINS FEATHER TITLE IN SINGAPORE BOUT

The featherweight championship bout at the Singapore Boxing Stadium two weeks ago saw Claude Rozario, the holder, defeat his challenger Johnny Perreau on points, and by a comfortable margin. Rozario has improved and surprised Perreau's backers who had been very confident of the issue. The pair may be matched again soon. Meanwhile Perreau is out of the running for a match with Battling Key.

Key's next opponent is to be Eddie Grady, whom many people in oriental ports will probably know under another name, for he "goes down to the sea in ships," or one of them. In an exhibition Grady impressed as a genuine fighter of splendid physique, and already many "fans" tip him to beat Key.

The fight may have to be put off for a while as Key's damaged thumb, which suffered from that wallop with which he knocked out Morales at Kuala Lumpur, is still very tender and makes it almost foolish for him to think of fighting formidable opponents for the present.

SHRINERS MEETING

A meeting of Nomad Oasis, Order of the Mystic Shrine, will be held at Masonic Hall this evening at 6 o'clock when important business will be discussed.

Members of the class recently initiated are particularly urged to be present. Some of the 1923 group were not invited to attend because their circulars were misplaced and the Committee is anxious that all should attend the session this evening.

SUN MAID RAISINS

HEALTH IS HAPPINESS
Foods that energize are what thousands need.
RAISINS, once thought to be merely luscious fruit, form one of our most energizing foods. Men and women who work hard and are active socially now use RAISINS to supply the needed extra fuel from food.
RAISINS do not tax digestion as ordinary sugar and fat fuels do because they are nature's sweetmeat, being practically pure fruit sugar.
RAISINS served with breakfast foods, in raisin pie, in bread, in fruit salad or as a confection, offer a prime way to increase the energizing nutriment of any meal in a most delightful manner.

M. C. C. IS OFF TO GOOD START IN FINAL MATCH

(Reuter's Service)

Capetown, March 3.—The last match of the M. C. C. tour of South Africa opened today in fine weather before an attendance of 6,000, including Prince and Princess Arthur of Connaught. The wicket was good.

The Western Province were all out for ... Jupp taking 4 wickets for 31.

At the close of play the M. C. C. had made 123 for 5 wickets. Sandham scored 38 and Fender 31.

TEACHERS ACCEPT CUT

London, Mar. 4.—The National Union of Teachers has decided to accept the government's plan for a five percent cut in salaries. The vote was 73,000 to 28,000 in favor of reduction.

The plan, while it calls for a reduction in salaries at the present time, provides for salary increases with each year of service, something which has never been in operation in England before.

Wu And Premier Have Wordy Tilt

Peking, March 4.—Ludicrous expressions are found in the official despatches exchanged between Premier Chang Shou-tseng and General Wu Pei-fu with reference to the question of the proposed appointment of Gen. Shen Hung-ying and General Sun Chuan-fang as Tuchuns of the Rehabilitation of Kwangtung and Fukien respectively.

Complaining because Premier Chang ignored his request to effect these appointments, General Wu in a telegram expresses his regret thus, "Your Excellency is besieged by a gang of 'small men.'"

This at once evoked the retort from the Premier that, "I deplore deeply that you have been hypnotised!"

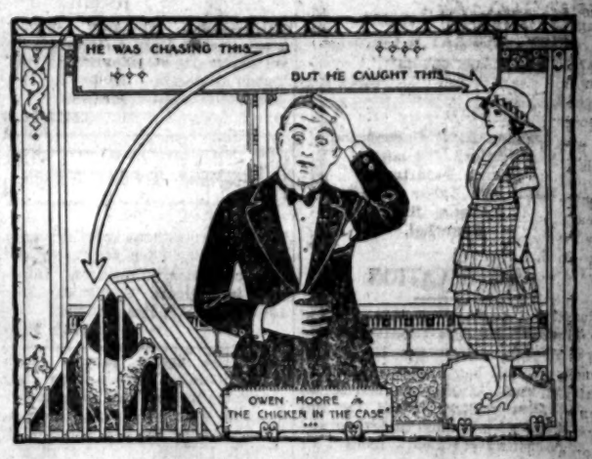
"THE CHICKEN IN THE CASE"

FIVE REELS

A HURRICANE OF HILARITY

How would you feel if you had borrowed another chap's wife, in order to practice a little harmless deception on an inquisitive relative, and you unexpectedly had the matter brought to the attention of your fiance, whom you had neglected to inform of the matter. Explanations galore, and the more explanation the more laughs it. Owen Moore's latest Selznick picture.



AND THE FAMOUS MONKEY

"SNOOKY"

IN

TWO PARTS

"Some folk think that acting is plain monkey business, but I say it's no business being a perfectly decent monkey if you gotta be an actor. A chorus girl that's different. If they'd only gimme a part suited to me sex I'd have a limousine and a diamond neglectless. But—what are they doing to me? They put me, an innocent small-town girl, into the most degrading competition with a low-down, questionable character and they stipulate that my monkey business is to get more and louder and quicker laughs per foot of film than any other comedy workman in the business—male, female, human, inhuman or slapsticker. Working hours? All hours—just as soon as I climb down from my tree. Pay? Notadam cent! Wot a life! Wot a life!"

Soviet Action Protested By Chamber Here

Closing of the Chinese General Chambers of Commerce at Chita, Nerchensk and Nekolsk and the arrest of the chairmen by the Soviet Government has been protested in a telegram sent to the Minister of Foreign Affairs by the Shanghai Chinese General Chamber of Commerce.

The message points out that although since the collapse of the Tsarist regime, the Russian Government has repeatedly assured China of its friendly policy towards this country, its pledges have always been contradicted by its actions. It adds that the cruel treatment suffered by the Chinese residents in Russia is a poor means of showing the appreciation by the Russian Government of the hospitality extended to the Russian refugees and the kind treatment of the Russian residents in China.

The Waichiaopu is required to lodge a strong protest with the Soviet Mission in Peking.

New Commanders Are Appointed On British Gunboats

Several of the river gunboats on the China Station are about to change commands, relieving officers being en voyage to the station to take the places of the present skippers. Lieutenant-Commander C. R. St. G. Tucker will assume command of the Woodlark; Lieutenant-Commander H. Archer will take over the Scarab; Lieutenant-Commander E. W. M. King, the Woodcock; Lieutenant-Commander A. C. Thurfield, the Teal; Lieutenant-Commander E. J. H. Dawson, the Moorhen; Lieutenant L. C. P. Tudway, D. S. O., D. S. C., the Robin.

Among other postings, Lieutenant-Commander J. S. Morrell joins the Tamar at Hongkong as wireless officer in charge of the Singapore Station; Lieutenant F. G. Hughes joins the Tamar for a spell of service; Sub-Lieutenant G. H. Thompson goes to the Bee, Sub-Lieutenant F. B. Thours to the Foxglove, Sub-Lieutenant A. C. Donald to the Magnolia and Sub-Lieutenant J. W. Grant to the Cockchafer.

Weather Report

Mar. 4—High pressures central over our regions and shifting eastward, while another anticyclone is advancing over the Yangtsze Valley. The depression is now crossing Yezo ENE ward. Variable winds all along the China coast. Overcast weather in out Valley: rainy with local mist in Shantung and in Chekiang.
Mar. 5.—The sky has completely cleared up before sunrise. Some light mist over the fields early in the morning. NWly breezes. Steady pressure.

March, 5, 1923

Spot bar silver was up ⅛d. and forward 1-16d. in London on Saturady. The New York price advanced to 66⅛ cents and the London-New York cross rate is unchanged at 470½. The only change in our official quotations here today was a drop in the Franc rate to 1185.

Our market here this morning opened steady and became firm during the course of the day. In the early part of the morning some business was done at 3-2 March, 3-1⅝ April and 3-1⅝ for May Sterling.

Gold Dollars were done at 74½ March and 74¼ April. However, in the afternoon the market was very strong indeed with speculators keen sellers.

Business in Sterling was done at 3s. 2⅝d. March, 3s. 2¼d. April, 3s. 1⅛d. May and 3s. 2d. June, Gold Dollars were done at 75⅝ March, 75¼ April and 75 for forward delivery.

At the close there were perhaps buyers rather than sellers at these rates but there were good sellers at a fraction lower. There were sellers of Yen at the close at 64¼ for March and buyers at 64. There were sellers for April at 64½ and buyers at 64⅝.

Banks were quoting 3s. 3d. and 77 for Sterling and Gold Dollar bills for near delivery and 3s. 2d. and 76¼ for forward delivery. Franc bills were done at 1250 for March and 1245 for forward delivery.

India bought silver in London on Saturday and the market there is reported as steady. There was nothing doing in the New York market.

How To Disband The Troops In China

(Note: The following is submitted to us by a prominent, foreign-educated Chinese engineer, who, in a covering note, invites public discussion of this engrossing problem.):

NUMEROUS ways have been advanced by politicians for cutting down the standing force of armed troops in our country. They think of building roads, irrigation schemes, mining enterprises, etc., etc. These are all good outlets for employing men discharged from the ranks. But there are altogether too many men desiring to be military officers. These men collect around themselves a few vagabonds in order that they may call themselves generals and draw money from the government. When two military chieftains butt their heads against each other, and one gains supremacy over the other, the winner enlists all or nearly all of the vagabonds of the other, so that a multitude, is always earning a living as soldier. Being attached to this or that side is of no consequence. Nay, not even to the chiefs, who welcome anybody coming to their flags with rifles bought by the other side.

Having been to many provinces both north and south, where internal strife has been on for the last ten years, the writer has two conclusions that will throw light upon the most expedient metnod of disbanding troops:

1.—The actual number of men now holding rifles is not excessive. It is the rated number that is appalling. I may say that of the best divisions in the north, probably not more than seventy percent in actual strength can be called on the roll. For the more irregular organised troops in different provinces, the average is only about sixty percent or even less. The balance of thirty to forty percent of the enlisted number is all "empty," the monthly payment from the government all going into the pockets of the officers. This is the reason why so many want to be in the military service and hope to be officers.

2.—The soldier in China is just like a coolie, selling his service for a pittance, which for most of the time is in arrears. His lot is like the common lot of poor people, born poor, without schooling and without trade. He prefers soldiery to coolie labor because ordinarily the former is less arduous. Usually these so-called soldiers come from the mountainous or barren districts where farm hands are not much in demand and other kinds of coolie labor not employed.

So if the government need only pay for the actual number of soldiers instead of the reported number, the annual military budget can be cut down at least 30-40 percent. How can we accomplish it? There is no use creating auditing officers to visit the camps and check up the number of men in each camp. For such work, the chances are the auditor would be a military man. The "face" courtesy is too much in vogue in China for him to report in truth. Then there is always the chance of bribery.

The soldiers are all under the mistaken impression that their "rice bowl" is given to them by favor of their officers. Because of this, they do all sorts of undignified work, such as waiting on officers' concubines, transporting opium for officers, and performing innumerable unlawful acts under protection of their uniforms. When payments are given to them in discount, they think they have to take what is given them lest their master mete out severe punishment.

Let us imagine that a certain camp has a written strength of 6,000 men and 300 officers, or half a division composed of a colonel and four battalions and their majors. If the colonel and his headquarters staff "eats up" 150 men from each battalion, the major receives only 1,350 men's pay from the colonel instead of 1,500 as chaged to the government. If the major "eats up' 50 men from each of the three companies under his charge, he in turn pays only 1,200 men's rations to the three captains or 400 to each one. Thus in only two reductions the number is reduced to 80 percent.

Next the captains, the lieutenants, sergeants, et. al., all have a share of fat down the line. Of course the lower the rank, the less he may squeeze. Thus we see the magnitude of universal squeeze among the military. In addition, the purchase of military supplies forms another chief source of improper income, such as uniforms, shoes, bedding, rice, etc. If we devise a method by which the officers can no more "eat up" soldiers' rations, the majority of officers will quit their alleged military pursuits and change to some useful occupation. My idea is to broadcast the following understanding among the soldiers themselves:

1. They are entitled to full payment with no discount whatever.

2. The public or the government is their employer. Should they receive wrongful dismissal from their officers, they can sue the officers, who are their superiors but not their masters or employers.

3. Every month each company should receive a clear statement of accounts from its commanding officer, with names of soldiers and the amount of pay each one received. Such statement should be placarded at the gate of each camp once every month to prove the integrity of the officers.

4. Inform them that if all expenditures were honest, and accounts exposed to them, the country can maintain the actual number of soldiers now under enlistment. There is no need of disbandment except for the aged and the weak, while on the other hand the annual budget can be cut down to sixty percent of the present amount. This will set their hearts at ease.

Such ideas can be put in mandarin and printed in pamphlet form and distributed to the various camps. It is not Bolshevism that I advocate. But we must enlighten the soldiers. It is of no use to hope that the officers will educate their soldiers. What they teach them is blind obedience. This but makes them the tools of their officers, and is the reason why they fight to no purpose, but as led by or driven by the quarrelling leaders. I do not expect any military officer will dare openly to object to the broadcasting of such pamphlets.

Several years will be necessary before the majority of the ranks grasp and realise the truth of these points. When that day arrives, we shall see the end of ignorant militarism in China. The sooner we start the propaganda, the sooner shall we have peace. This I think is the only means of killing militarism with its own weapon and the only effective one. If we, the majority of peace-loving citizens, do not make any move, the country is to be plunged into chaos, and foreign control will be the logical sequence.

Last year while at Shanghai I heard of a move started by the leading merchants and the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce for troop-disbandment. I belittle the effect of sending petitions and telegrams to the various military men calling their attention to the necessity of army reduction. How many of them ever get into contact with the outside world? They look upon us as subjects and feel exalted in their positions. In my professional work I know the sterling qualities of our laboring class from which comes the soldier. The latter may be contaminated but he is still sensible. Let us enlighten him just only this much and the iron is put upon the neck of the average military officer.

There is now an income tax on beauty in the United States but nobody's worrying even if that is extended to American citizens in Shanghai.

Beauty, as a matter of fact, is already overbearingly taxed in Shanghai. How the sweet frails keep up the pace is more than we mere males know—or can find out.

If a man is looking for excitement, he may find it in the pursuit of a popular Shanghai girl; but if he wants eternal, gluey devotion all he has to do is to step out and bestow a little attention on a neglected woman.

That, of course, depends on whether or not he ever gets the chance. A goof generally starts out looking for the type of girl he likes most, but he's usually waylaid, knocked down and out, and dragged off by the girl who likes his type most.

Ah Pa Jongg remarked at the tea dansant at the Country Club on Sunday when he saw all our leading steppers of the younger generation skidding about happily (the Springtime changes do appear to permeate the air)—sez Pa "This love game is a funny business. Nobody knows exactly what they want and so the mere male tries to get what he thinks he wants and the beautiful frail tries to think she wants what she gets."

ON SOUL KISSES

Sentimental husbands all over the United States of Aridity have been suffering from sentimental dyspepsia ever since Irene Bordoni asserted that American wives were sparing with their soul kisses.

"Put your whole soul into every kiss you give your husband," sez Irene.

What, we ask, has the poor husband done to be so persecuted, sez Helen Rowland. Kisses are said (an aside) to be wonderful things, but think of being soul-kissed 365 days per year by the same kisser! Vamp your husband, flirt with him, kid him along, tickle his vanity by listening to his alleged funny stories—but be merciful. No man wants chocolate eclairs seven nights a week and no man wants to be soul-kissed until the cows come home.

Talk about emotional mal-de-mer!

Eternal soul-kisses would burn out the most ardent soul of Shanghai (or the world's) most lotheric Lothario.

PA JONGG SEZ:

"Nothing chokes the romance out of a mere male quicker than to have a woman hanging around his neck."

We'll never forget the divorce case we once reported for a Chicago newspaper. A woman sued her Alaskan husband because he was so hot-headed. She said she didn't get enough to eat and that when she complained he threw her a fish until she thought every day was Friday.

If the person reading this happens to get the idea that all there is to married life is kissing or soul-kissing we might insert a paragraph to the effect that we have heard one or two fellows speaking about 'spats with the wife.'

'Spats with the wife,' we might add, are merely the exchange of love taps, although sometimes they use convenient plates, shoes, etc.

'Tis woman's whole existence."

"Hawaii Lost To United States," Says C. Vanderbilt, jr.

BY C. VANDERBILT, JR.

Hawaii is lost to the United States!

Hawaii can never become a State now. It may soon cease to be even a territorial possession of the United States. Hawaii is already, barring only Formosa, the greatest insular colonial outpost of the Imperial Japanese Government.

Its affairs are indirectly controlled now by the Japanese Colonial Office.

The day when it will be controlled by the Colonial Office directly—not to mention the War Office—is not far distant in the expressed opinions of Japanese authorities themselves.

Americans! Do you know THAT:

There are more Japanese in Hawaii than there are either whites or Hawaiian natives?

Japanese can become citizens of the United States in Hawaii and then migrate to the States?

By 1933, the Japanese electoral body in the Hawaiian Islands will decide at the polls whether there shall be a Republican or a Democratic form of Government in the islands?

Twenty percent of the entire population consists of Japanese citizens of the United States?

AIMING AT CONTROL

The number of American born Americans in the islands, as compared with the Japanese citizenry figure of 49,274, is 15,323 or two-thirds less than the Japanese citizen population. In addition to the 49,274 Japanese citizens of America living in the islands, there are 60,258 alien Japanese living in the islands. They are the parents of the rapidly swelling citizen ranks.

The Japanese population of the Hawaiian Islands is exactly one-half the entire population of Hawaii.

In the islands, the Japanese fully expect to gain absolute political control through their voting privileges. For the present, they are content to control the islands economically. With funds in amounts every before possessed by them, the Japanese, who think and act collectively, are provided with capital for their collective use in acquiring control of industries at present owned and controlled by Americans.

They intend to secure extensive industrial control of the islands. This is demonstrated not only by their disinclination or actual refusal to be employed by American controlled industries, but also by their specific attempts to purchase outright the control of the island's greatest industries.

GOVERNMENT BALKED

This they seek to do through the medium of organisations especially formed for the purpose of keeping the Japanese citizen and alien alike in one great body, from whom is secured the revenue whereby the organisation lives.

Needless to say, such organisations and associations, usually under most inoffensive names, are receiving support not only from Japanese commercial houses at home but from the Imperial Government of Japan itself.

Tied by the immigration laws the hands of Government are unable to check the mad rush of alien, unassimilable blood to the Hawaiian Islands and its incorporation into the body politic. The only thing that the United States Government can do, and is now doing in a quiet but forceful way, is to continue the dispatch of armed troops to Schofield Barracks, Honolulu, the great military outpost of the United States in the Pacific.

The city of Honolulu is a naval, aerial and army base of the first magnitude. In the Pacific it has but one other rival among the American military establishments, and that is at Corregidor, Philippine Islands. The fortifications and naval bases of Guam and Samoa are inconsequential except as coaling stations.

Where the "gentlemen's agreement" between the United States and Japan failed to work on the American continent—failed utterly to check the inflow of Orientals into the United States—the "gentlemen's agreement" does not operate in Hawaii.

"PICTURE BRIDES"

In consequence Japan is at liberty to send into that island territory as many of her people as she will give passports to. The Japanese women still enter the island in great droves as "picture brides." The territory has awakened almost too late to this increased menace offered thereby.

Passage of the Johnston amendment to the Immigration act would materially aid Hawaii to check the Japanese invasion and to that end patriotic islanders are urging in every possible way the adoption of the amendment by Congress.

It is expected Hawaii will send a special delegation to Congress to prevail upon American lawmakers to pass the measure. The amendment refuses immigration to the United States and its territories to all aliens ineligible to citizenship.

This strikes deliberately at Japan. It would also check the "picture bride" traffic.

In passing, it should be remarked that the bill as offered by Congressman Johnson of Washington would also prevent the admission of radicals who believe in the destruction of Government, since they are ineligible to citizenship under existing laws. Another bill introduced by Congressman Raker, of California, covers the same features.

Demonstrating to what extent the American Government views Hawaii's importance as a military and naval outpost, this Government during the Arms Conference refused absolutely to consider as part of the plan for the defortification of Pacific islands, any move aimed to place Hawaii within its scope.

Japan's delegates after agreeing in principle to the American plan for maintenance of capital ships, announced that they could not accept the American ratio of capital ships unless the United States would agree not to fortify or establish additional naval bases in the Pacific Ocean. The Japanese insisted that this apply to Hawaii as much as to the Philippines.

THE U. S. ATTITUDE

The American Government took the position that it could not entertain any question in any guise whatsoever, as to the fortifications of its own coasts or of the Hawaiian Islands. This Government emphatically stated its fortifications and future military and naval activities in the Hawaiian Islands must remain unrestricted.

After prolonged negotiations, the three Powers—the United States, the British Empire and Japan—made an agreement that the status quo at the time of the signing of the Naval Treaty, with regard to fortifications and naval bases, should be maintained in their respective territories and possessions.

It was provided that the Philippine Islands, Guam and Samoa should not be increased as military strongholds. In return for agreeing to our Hawaiian exemption demand, the Japanese demanded and secured the right to continue fortification activities in the islands adjacent to the Empire mainland, that is to say, Formosa and Saghalien particularly.

Existing conditions in the Hawaiian Islands forbid the granting of statehood to Hawaii and must eventually necessitate the inauguration of a commission form of government.

As a striking example of the immense solidarity of the Japanese citizens of America in the Hawaiian Islands and their great control over the alien Japanese in the Islands, is the action they took en masse in the 1921 strike of Japanese laborers on the rich sugar plantations—the principal enterprise in the Islands.

With a few rare exceptions every Japanese in the territory, whether born in Hawaii or in Japan, and regardless of affiliations and associations, were forced to assist and abet the purposes of the strike, either actively or tacitly.

RACIAL SOLIDARITY

The remarkable racial solidarity of the Japanese shown in that strike has frightened the natives and whites in Hawaii. Today the intelligent white business, professional and laboring elements, are either directly or through commissions sent to Washington by the Territorial Legislature, asking Congress to pass the Rehabilitation Act and an immigration measure, the acknowledged purposes of which are to protect Hawaii from ultim-

Hall's Distemper has led the way to a new era in house decoration—the era of brighter, cleaner and healthier homes.

It is the most durable of all decorations, lasting for years with freshness unimpaired, whereas wall-papers deteriorate from the first day by fading and accumulating dust and dirt.

Hall's Distemper is a thorough disinfectant, and is applied directly upon the wall, forming a hard surface, from which dust and dirt may be "spring-cleaned" by lightly sponging with warm water.

Written For The China Press

BY ELLIOTT J. OSGOOD

The monastery in the Lang-ya Mountains near the city of Chu-chow in Anhwei is even wider known than is the city. The monastery was founded in the days of the Tang Dynasty, enlarged during the Sung Dynasty and reached its greatest influence in the days of Tao-kwan of the Manchu rule. With other temples in the Yangtsze Valley it was destroyed by the Taiping rebels. During the last few years the present abbot has set himself the task of rebuilding it.

The monastery is situated in the midst of the largest forest in this part of China. It nestles in a beautiful mountain valley three miles south of the city of Chu-chow. For one who loves trees this place is one of the most attractive of resorts. The abbot has kept the forest clean, selling off the refuse timber for fuel or converting it into charcoal. Path wind through the forest leading to ancient monuments and more modern summer houses.

Ta-hsiu, the Abbot, is more of a promoter and business man than a priest. With the planting of armies along the Tientsin-Pukow Railroad at Hsuchowfu and Pengpu, he has taken upon meself to cultivate the acquaintance of all the military leaders in whom he has found the old religious ideas still strongly planted. Chang Hsun gave him his start in subscriptions and Ni Shi-chung and his followers at Pengpu materially increased the funds.

REBUILDING NOW

With these funds in hand the abbot has uncovered the foundations of the destroyed buildings. He has burnt his own brick and lime. The forest has furnished much of his timber. It will take many years and much larger sums of money to rebuild all of the destroyed buildings. The great hall with its great Buddha and his Disciples and numerous satellites has now been restored. Back of this hall the abbot has built a two story hostel. It is open not only to traveling pilgrims but also to any Chinese or foreigners who may be attracted to the place for pleasure or rest. One can scarcely imagine a more pleasant place than this one with its beautiful forest paths and wounderful mountain scenery. The priests are hospitality personified. The local people are interested in the rebuilding to the extent that they enjoy it as a fine place at which to spend a day but they have done very little toward subscribing for the rebuilding of the monastery.

The history of these mountains and this monastery goes back to the days of the Three Kingdoms. Those who have studied Chinese history will remember that Chu Ko-liang was the great hero of that time. His greatest rival was Sz. Ma-i, the commander-in-chief of the armies of a rival state. Chu Ko-liang was the greatest strategist and keenest mind while Sz Ma-i was the greater general. It was brains pitted against force and brains won as usual.

One needs but to recall the single event when Chu Ko-liang saved his city by throwing open the gates, commanding the street cleaners to go about their work as usual, and he himself sat over the gate and played upon his guitar. No soldier were to be seen. Sz Ma-i halted his great army in sight of the city gates. He feared his great opponent and looked for a trap. He concluded to let the city alone and turned his troops about. As they retreated the sound of his guitar seemed to grow more joyous and this increased the fear of the soldiers.

AN ANCIENT TALE

Yet this same Sz Ma-i and his descendants played a greater part in the history of China than did Chu Ko-liang. Four successive members of the clan held the highest position in their government until the fifth one overthrew his dissolute Emperor and himself founded the Tsin Dynasty. His heirs kept the throne until the seventh removed from Sz Ma-i was overcome by rivals; then a new star appeared in the political sky.

It is related that once Sz Ma-i dreamed that a stone was dug out of the earth on which were cut the figures of seven horses and an ox. His family name being Horse (Ma) he took it for an omen that seven members of his clan would lead in the government and then the power would be wrested from them by another who would have the name of Ox (Niu). So fully did he believe this that he could never endure one by the hated name to have a part in the government. Through a female line one of Sz Ma-i's descendents arose and his name was Niu. He also knew of the dream and for his own protection fled south to the vicinity of Nanking and for some years hid in the mountain range now called Lang-ya Shan. He was called the Lang-ya Wang, or Heir Apparent, and from him the mountain took its name. The monastery which was built four hundreds years later has down to the present day been known by the same name. This prince became the founder of the Eastern Tsin Dynasty and the first time in its history made Nanking his capital.

It was not until the Tang Dynasty that Fa-chen, a priest, under the patronage of another prince, laid the foundations of the first monastery. It was still two centuries more before the temple grounds were enlarged and it received its real, but forgotten name. Kaihwa Monastery. The name means "The Opening Flower" and commemorates the fact that Yuan Ti, founder of the Eastern Tsin Dynasty went through his formative period at this place.

ate political and racial control by the Japanese.

It is amazing that the American Government has done so little to check the Japanese invasion of Hawaii with consequent economic control. The advantages possessed by the Nipponese in economic competition are such that the whites are speedily driven out of communities and must, in time, succumb to such competition in all sections where the Japanese are permitted to gain a foothold.

The results, inevitable in California and other States if existing conditions continue, are foreshadowed in Hawaii, where half the population is already Japanese, where more than half of the births and new school registrations are Japanese, where Japanese have already secured economic control in the Territory, and where they soon will rule by a majority of votes.

Hawaii is under the American flag, but it has been practically conquered by the Japanese. It is, to all intents and purposes, administrated as much by the Imperial Japanese Government as it is by Federal Government. In Hawaii the Japanese number four times as many as those of any other race.

VOTING STRENGTH

They boast in their many newspapers in the Islands that by the votes of native-born Japanese they will hold the balance of power as between Republicans and Democrats before 1933, and it is equally certain that within a generation they will outvote a combination of all other races in the Territory.

So great is their voting strength already that they defeated a bill before the Territorial Legislature in June, 1921, which would have forced teachers in Japanese and other foreign language schools to know enough of the English language and American civics and history to teach the young American citizens some of their duties and obligations. The Japanese teachers do not fulfil these requirements.

Through lack of understanding of the Japanese peril and the impression that Americans in the Far West and in the Hawaiian Islands are influenced simply by race prejudice, Congress and the East generally have been disinclined in past years seriously to consider the menace of Japanese immigration and economic control of former American enterprises.

But this attitude is now changing. Shantung and Siberia have given these doubters cause for thought, until now there is noticeable a big change in attitude.

It is through the weak complaisance and the blindness of the Federal Government, and the bad faith of Japan, that the menace has increased to the present proportions. It is only through Federal action that adequate remedies can be applied. The remedies suggested by prominent combatters of the invading foe in Hawaii and the Far West are five in number.

First—Cancellation of the "gentlemen's agreement," which was entered into only to save Japan's face, for her pride would have been mortally wounded had an exclusion act similar to the one enacted against the Chinese been passed against the Japanese. The agreement has failed utterly to serve the end for which it was created. It was an instance of "stooping to conquer," only we stooped so low that we have been conquerors only on paper. The "gentlemen's agreement" constitutes a grave miscarriage of American honor.

ALLEGIANCE DUAL

Second—The passage of an amendment to the immigration bill such as proposed by Congressman Johnson to forever check the tide of Oriental invasion, not a man in which entertains the thought of ever becoming assimilated into the American body politic as genuine Americans. Their allegiance is dual. Such a step is necessary to put an effective stoppage to the influx of "picture brides."

Third—The absolute exclusion of all Asiatics as immigrants.

Fourth—Confirmation and legalisation of the principle that Asiatics shall be forever barred from citizenship.

Fifth—An amendment of Section 1 of Article 14 of the Federal Constitution, providing that no child born in the United States of foreign parents shall be eligible to American citizenship unless both parents are eligible to such citizenship. This action would avert much of the "radical" danger with which the country is faced.

Let us shift the scene now to the Philippine Islands, which lies at the mercy of the great Japanese naval base in the Bonin Islands, protected only by our fortifications and naval base at Guam, which we have solemnly promised not to enlarge or in any way strengthen.

The Japanese have invariably claimed that they did not do well as permanent residents of the Philippine Islands; that they, coming from a fairly cold temperate climate, could not work as laborers with any great success.

SLOW BUT STEADY

The steady influx of the Japanese laboring element into the Philippines—and of the Japanese tradesmen, too—has been silent and unobtrusive, but steady. The first call from the wilderness was when Captain Birchfield sold half of his vast interests on the Gulf of Davao to Japanese about two years ago. Today every town worthy of a name on the map of British North Borneo, boasts a Japanese shop of some kind.

The jump, geographically speaking, from North Borneo to the Jolo Archipelago in the Philippines, is less than a day's sail. Here the Japanese are engaged in extensive pearling.

The next step is again northward, embracing every town and almost every hamlet on the island of Mindanao. Even Cabadbaran, a mile north of the mouth of the Agusan River boats Japanese shops and fishing corporations. They trail northward again, despite the expressed dislike of Cabadbarians for Orientals and their hope of eventually throwing them out entirely.

In Manila, the district of Sampalok is dominated by Japanese. Calle Arlegue is one-half Japanese. They have entered the thin edge of the wedge in Calle Rosario, where they are pushing out the Chinese. In the Binondo, Escolta and Calle San Fernando districts of Manila the Nipponese are also prolific.

The Filipino presents few obstacles to the Japanese. The latter has no real enemy in that country except the Chinese, because the Filipino has no mercantile instinct, is a born gambler and has little or no capital.

The Japanese may become American citizens in the Philippines if born there, naturally. A Japanese will take out naturalisation papers in the Philippines, swearing allegiance to the Government of the United States, but a Japanese will not marry a Filipino woman.

This is but further proof of their conviction never to become assimilated but to maintain the purity of their race, employing American citizenship merely as a means to a profitable end economically and at the expense of rightful heirs to American honor of citizenship.

THE RICHEST PRIZE

The failure of Filipinos to take advantage of the Homestead law due principally to their indolence and lack of business acumen generally, has enabled the Japanese to rush to fill applications for the lands. Indeed, it is profitable to win economic strength by merely swearing a false allegiance.

What is the Japanese eye upon in Mindanao? The Harrison regime prevented Americans from exploiting the great iron deposits of Tugas Point and the Japanese are now negotiating for its control. There are great oil deposits in Mindanao; the best agricultural and grazing land to be found in the archipelago.

Then, too, the Island of Yap is close by, and there the Japanese are strong. Mindanao is the next jumping off point in the Japanese chain that strings the Far Eastern seas.

The whole of Mindanao is exceedingly rich in gold ore, placer, hydraulic or quartz mining and in coal. The Japanese have their eyes upon it all. Their advance guards are negotiating ever so unobtrusively for it. The American man of enterprise is asleep!

The Filipinos want their independence. We shudder in their behalf to think what would happen to them at the hands of the merciless Japanese, shrewd and clever genius of commerce that he is, should the Islands be left to shift for themselves.

Americans may well bestir themselves, lest they be judged by the Japanese to be as mentally indolent as the Filipinos are physically indolent.

The Philippines constitute the richest prize any enemy ever laid lustful eyes upon and we have promised not to strengthen our defense there!

Peking Politicians Fail To Pay Chits

Peking, March 4.—The Eastern Hotel has announced that from the 1st of this month the cafe department has been closed. Investigation reveals that the hotel has been unable to collect its accounts from the officials and politicians in Peking, who utilized the cafe as a rendezvous, and that consequently the profits made in other departments of the concern have been outbalanced by the loss incurred by its cafe.

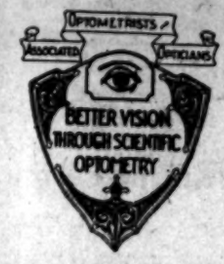
British Funds In Osaka Shosen Kaisha

The Kobe Shimbun reports an important agreement between the Osaka Shosen Kaisha and the British financial firm of Samuel and Co. It says:

"As has been announced by Mr. Hori, the president, the Osaka Shosen Kaisha has adopted a positive policy since the beginning of this year and is contemplating great activity on all its steamship lines. However, it has no easy task, as the Yamashita Kisen Kaisha and the Kuribayashi Kisen Kaisha are both playing an active part in the coastwise trade while many new British, American and German steamers have entered the ocean runs. The Osaka Shosen Kaisha is trying to improve its position by getting funds at low rates of interest and converting the company's debentures. It hopes also to get superior vessels. Eventually, the Samuel Company of London, which owns very rich resources and which desire to get a footing in the Far East, sent in a proposal to co-operate in the business, and the Osaka Shosen Kaisha has decided to accept funds from the Samuel Company and carry out its positive policy."

RECOMMIT PROPOSAL
(Reuter's Pacific Service)
Peking, March 4.—The Government proposes to recommit the Twelfth Year Loan to Parliament for reconsideration.

"Save your eyes,"



Our way of ocular examination is entirely different from others. In the former times it relies on subjective observation which can not disclose real status of eye refraction in high degree of accuracy. In the practice of Modern Ophthalmic Optics-Optometry the observer more relies on objective methods by the aid of precision instruments. Your call at our office will have such services as can be rendered by an up-to-date optometrist.

TWO BIG LINERS DUE THIS WEEK WITH U. S. MAILS

The next mail for Honolulu and the United States will be dispatched on the President Lincoln of the Pacific Mail next Friday, and that for European ports via Suez will go on the Hakone Maru on Saturday.

Two big liners are arriving from America this week. The President Madison, from Seattle, bringing a heavy mail, is expected in Shanghai on Thursday, and the Empress of Asia, arriving Yokohama from Vancouver today, is due off Woosung next Saturday. Both vessels will sail for the South on Saturday.

The M. M. liner Porthos, with the French mails of January 26, left Hongkong last Saturday and is due in Shanghai this afternoon. The vessel will dock at the S. M. R. Whangpoo Wharf about 1 o'clock, and is bringing 96 passengers for this port besides mail.

Bankers Inquire Into Loan Security

Peking, March 4.—In connection with the proposed issue of the 12th Year eight percent $12,000,000 loan, the Chinese Bankers Association here held a meeting yesterday when it was resolved to send a delegate to the Ministery of Finance to inquire into the security for the loan.

The bankers were not satisfied with the verbal assurance of Mr. Liu En-yuan, Minister of Finance, and declared that unless the Government would place the assigned security for the loan under their control they would not undertake the disposal of the loan bonds.

Flying In Britain Not Self-Supporting

London, Mar. 4.—The popularity of flying as a method of commercial travel may be judged by the fact that 12,828 passengers arrived and departed from the Croydon Aerodrome, during the year 1922. To carry this number of passengers 4,193 flights were made.

Flying, nevertheless, is not yet a paying business for the airplane companies. The government allows them subsidies which cover their actual losses.

In the future all airplanes flying over England at night will carry white rear lights on each wing tip and on the tail. This is a new regulation of the Air Ministry.

The ministry is about to establish a permanent gliding station at Ilford Hill, where the gliding contests were held last October. Sheds and workshops will be erected, and the station will be utilised not only by the Royal Air Force, but by private experimenters who will be able to try out their gliders, and use the workshops and hauling trolleys attached to the station.

British To Build Low Price Houses

London, March 4.—Since the signing of the armistice in November, 1918, the British government has erected 184,916 houses in England which have been leased at low rentals to those who were financially affected by the war and industrial conditions.

The present building program provides for the immediate erection of 30,239 more such houses, with an additional 50,000 in the future.
